

C. Michael Elliott Scholarship – Sponsored by GHD Scholarship Application

The C. Michael Elliott Graduate Scholarship is an award sponsored by the professional services firm, GHD. The Scholarship is awarded on the basis of merit and character to an individual who is a full-time graduate student currently enrolled in a program of study in the water supply field which leads to a Master's or higher degree at an accredited college or university in the United States. Preference is given to applicants whose courses of study are considered to be beneficial to water works practice in New York State (e.g., engineering design, utility management regulation, or treatment plant operation).

The scholarship is named in honor of C. Michael Elliott who provided leadership, passion, and commitment to the water community throughout his life.

Eligibility

- Applicant must be a graduate student enrolled as a full-time matriculated student in a Master's or higher program at an accredited college or university in the United States.
- Academic achievement is a major factor in the selection process; however, there are not minimum requirements. Appropriate weight is given to a student's extracurricular activities such as participation in student chapters of professional societies and work experience in the drinking water supply field.
- The applicant's course work in areas related to a career in the drinking water supply field and interest in water supply related research will be considered.

Application Process

- Submit a cover letter briefly describing why you are deserving of this scholarship.
- Complete application form on page 2.

Scholarship Amount

One $2,000 scholarship to be awarded annually at the Annual New York's Water Event on April 16, 2019. The scholarship recipient must meet eligibility requirements as reviewed by the Section's Scholarship Review Committee and is in no way obligated to the New York Section or AWWA.

Application Deadline
